What to expect from the interview/audition

A review of the applicant's portfolio and an assessment of their interest in the subject . The interview aims to assess the applicant's artistic abilities, potential, and suitability for the art course. It is advisable for applicants to come prepared with a portfolio that reflects their artistic abilities and showcases their unique style and interests .

How to prepare for interview/audition

Take the time to carefully curate your portfolio, selecting your best and most representative artwork. Make sure to include a variety of pieces that showcase your skills, creativity, and artistic style . Be prepared to discuss your artwork in detail during the interview. Practice explaining your artistic process, inspirations, and the concepts behind your pieces. Do not worry if your previous experiences in art does not specifically relate to the course you are applying for. We just want to see you demonstrate your artistic talent so be yourself, be confident, and let your passion for art shine through during the interview. Good luck!
